Reminder - Career in Games & Film, Industry Experience Day at AIE

Sydney - 7th July and 30th September

Canberra - 6th July and 28th September

AIE's Industry Experience Days are a great opportunity for students in Years 10, 11 and 12 to learn about the local and international game development, 3D animation and visual effects industries. Students will get the opportunity to learn about the different pathways to get into the industry, what should be in a portfolio and will be able to get creative in practical workshops using industry-standard 3D animation and game development tools.

The sessions are run by industry professionals who have worked on some blockbuster games and films. Everything is provided for you to participate in the hands-on workshops and you will be using the same software that is used in the industry.

If you are thinking about a career in the games or film industry then we highly recommend registering for this free event. We are limiting numbers for this event due to physical distancing requirements, with Year 12 students having priority to register.

Winter skills to support ski industry boom

Minister for Skills Geoff Lee announces a program to develop a regional workforce for the snow season.

The NSW Government has launched the Winter Skills program to equip the regional workforce with in-demand skills ahead of a bumper 2021 snow season.

Deputy Premier and Member for Monaro John Barilaro welcomed the news and said the initiative would make a huge difference in the Snowy Mountains.

“One of the highlights of winter is a trip to our beautiful alpine region, and now thanks to this initiative, the thousands of families and tourists who hit the slopes will have an even more skilled local workforce ready to greet them,” Mr Barilaro said.

“The Snowy Mountains did it incredibly tough last year with the region dealing with the impacts of drought, bushfires and COVID-19. That is why the NSW Government is providing fee-free training for locals and people across NSW wanting to work on the slopes or nearby businesses this ski season. Read more here:

University of Newcastle Joint Medical Program – Studying Medicine Info Session

23 June. 6pm to 7pm

The Bachelor of Medical Science and Doctor of Medicine (MD - JMP) is an innovative five year degree that will prepare you for an exciting and rewarding medical career. Delivered in partnership with the University of New England, Hunter New England Local Health District and Central Coast Local Health District our students' graduate ready to play a key role in shaping and improving future health care for individuals and communities. Students enrolled at the University of Newcastle have the opportunity to preference two different first year locations now, opening up the opportunity to study closer to home.

This session will look at the JMP program and admission criteria, as well as present both locations, the Callaghan Campus in Newcastle and the new Gosford Hospital location.

You will hear more about the new University of Newcastle Central Coast Clinical School and Health and Medical Research Institute co-located on the site of the redeveloping Gosford Hospital, which will be a catalyst for enhanced integrated healthcare, innovation and new opportunities for the Central Coast and will help drive the Coast's economy, create good jobs, attract new talent and investment, improve healthcare and link the world's best medical education and research to the Central Coast.

There will be a presentation by A/Prof Amanda Dawson, Clinical Dean of the Central Coast Medical School, as well as the chance to hear from current and past medical students and junior doctors.

We hope to answer all your questions about medicine as a career!

For further information about the JMP program, please visit our website.

ANU- How will we power the planet in the future?

12 June 2pm

The world is on the precipice of a cleaner, cheaper, and more efficient energy future.

We're moving away from using dead dinosaurs to power the world and live our lives.

Why must the future of energy be green?

What does a renewable energy future look like?

How might we power the world in the future?

ANU - Atoms from deep space found on Earth! Where are they coming from?

26 June. 2pm

Everything on Earth is made of atoms, most of the atoms have been around since the Earth was formed, but some are man-made. One type of atom is Plutonium, which does not exist naturally on Earth. However, about 80 years ago, people produced Plutonium in nuclear explosions, and a tiny amount of it was spread around the world during the last century. We have found some plutonium deep down in the ocean that was not man-made, but instead came from outer space - but how do we know this? Join us, as we discuss our search for Plutonium from out of this world, how much we have been able to find, and how we know where it is coming from.

Dr Karl's Surfing Safari Through Science

Tuesday 22 June, 6–7pm, Doors open at 5.45pm.

Venue: The Great Hall, Quadrangle, The University of Sydney. (A14C) Registration essential

The search for truth has always been hard, but it is true that a whale and a fish can keep on swimming after they have died (the reason is physics, not biology), and that we are running out of sand (yup, they had to build the world's tallest building in Dubai with Australian sand).

While Pterodactyls weren't exactly flying, two-legged, dinosaurs (only one-third of that is correct), the good news is that we can both stop and reverse Climate Change with today's technology, and bring CO2 and the Climate back to what it was in the 20th Century.

STEM Hour: Connect, learn, grow - Exploring Bush Tucker

16 July. 11am to 12pm

What comes to mind when we think about Australian cuisine? There are few things more Aussie than meat pies and the good old barbie.

In our July webinar, we will celebrate food that has been here for thousands of years, much longer than the sausage sizzle: Bush Tucker. Join us on a journey back in time when wattle seed, river mint and kakadu plum nourished generation after generation.

Our webinar panel will share ideas on how to include native plants in inquiry-based STEM learning in early childhood settings and discuss why we don't see more native foods commercially available.

The Santos Science Experience

Uni of New England 11 - 13 January 2022 10 December 2021 - 18 places

University of Sydney 12 - 14 January 2022 7 January 2022 – 92 places

ANU 15 - 17 September 2021 - Best Apply Before: 10 August 2021 - 38 places

The Santos Science Experience is a fun 3 or 4 days of science activities for Year 9 and 10 students.

Each program is designed to provide students who have an interest in science with an opportunity to engage in a wide range of fascinating science activities under the guidance of scientists who love their work.

The program takes place in over thirty-five universities and tertiary institutions, within many different laboratories and lecture theatres. Participants perform experiments in the laboratories, meet and hear senior lecturers in the lecture theatres, attend site visits and walk around and experience what it is like to be on the campus of a university or tertiary institution. More than 81,000 students have taken this rare opportunity, up to date.

The program also provides information about further studies in science, technology and engineering. It highlights the wide range of careers that allow students to pursue their interest and abilities in the sciences.

One aspect of the program often commented on by participants is the opportunity to meet and share ideas with students from different schools. Each program includes a BBQ or other social activity.

For links to programs go to Past and Future Programs

Any Year 9 and 10 student is welcome to attend any one of the programs listed on the Where and When page.

Education vital for future farmers

Once upon a time, a career in agriculture was fairly limited. Reserved primarily for people that grew up in rural and remote areas, it encompassed general farming practices and required no qualifications. However, times have changed. High school graduates from the inner city are taking up agriculture degrees and there is more scope to study in the metropolitan area, rather than making the trek to a rural campus several hours away.

Reminder - Career in Games & Film, Industry Experience Day at AIE

Sydney - 7th July and 30th September

Canberra - 6th July and 28th September

AIE's Industry Experience Days are a great opportunity for students in Years 10, 11 and 12 to learn about the local and international game development, 3D animation and visual effects industries. Students will get the opportunity to learn about the different pathways to get into the industry, what should be in a portfolio and will be able to get creative in practical workshops using industry-standard 3D animation and game development tools.

The sessions are run by industry professionals who have worked on some blockbuster games and films. Everything is provided for you to participate in the hands-on workshops and you will be using the same software that is used in the industry.

If you are thinking about a career in the games or film industry then we highly recommend registering for this free event. We are limiting numbers for this event due to physical distancing requirements, with Year 12 students having priority to register.

Education vital for future farmers

Once upon a time, a career in agriculture was fairly limited. Reserved primarily for people that grew up in rural and remote areas, it encompassed general farming practices and required no qualifications. However, times have changed. High school graduates from the inner city are taking up agriculture degrees and there is more scope to study in the metropolitan area, rather than making the trek to a rural campus several hours away.

BBM Global Agriculture Industry Scholarship

Keep an eye open for it to resume shortly.

Applications for the 2020 BBM Global Industry Scholarships of $8,000 are now open for travel in 2021.

The BBM Global Agriculture Scholarship is your opportunity to go overseas, to follow your passion, explore the possibilities and create the career you love. To apply for an Agricultural scholarship, you need to have (or be completing) your Certificate IV.

Total has a long history of Cert IVs applying and being successful with this scholarship. If you are interested, we can connect you with past applicants to talk about where they went, what they did and how that has helped them.
