

UCAT ANZ Registration & Booking

UCAT ANZ 2020 testing takes place between 1 July and 31 July 2020. You must complete a two-step process using the Pearson VUE online registration system to register and then book a test.

You are strongly recommended to register and sit your test at your earliest convenience to ensure places are available at your nearest test centre. Each year there are candidates who book a late test and encounter problems when they fall ill or experience other issues preventing them from taking that testing slot. This can be avoided by booking to take the test early in the month. We advise that candidates read the Mitigating Circumstances section carefully.

It is also worth noting that school holidays in Australia and university breaks in New Zealand occur in the first half of July. We recommend that you use these times to sit the test to give greater flexibility and to reduce stress.

If you are named on a current Australian Health Care Card / Pensioner Concession Card you are eligible for the Concession Scheme and should apply for the concession fee before booking your test. The concession fee is not available to candidates sitting the test outside Australia. Please see this section about the Concession Scheme.

If you are eligible for extra time or require test accommodations, please see the section on Access Arrangements for more information before booking your test.

Step 1: Online Account Registration

You must create an online account with Pearson VUE before you can book your test. You need to register for your test personally – this cannot be done by a school/college. You should only create one account as multiple accounts are not permitted.

You must register with your legal name exactly as it appears on the photo identification you will present at the test centre. If there is not an exact match, you will not be able to take your test and you will not be reimbursed for any fees paid.

When you create an account you will need to provide the information requested here.

Step 2: Booking a Test

Booking opens: 2 March 2020

BOOKING CLOSES: 11 May 2020 at 11.59pm AEST

LATE booking deadline: 18 May 2020 at 11:59pm AEST

Please refer to these Booking Instructions for the information requested in the booking process and to assist you with booking your test.

After registering your account you will receive an email confirming your account has been created. The email will also contain the username you created. You can then log-in to your Pearson VUE account to book your test. The test fee is payable at the time of booking by major credit card (Visa, Mastercard or Visa debit card).

The final date to book your test is 11.59pm AEST on 18 May 2020 (late booking deadline). No further bookings will be accepted after this deadline under any circumstances and no correspondence will be entered into regarding these matters. Late bookings incur an additional late fee of AUD $75.

UCAT ANZ is delivered in Pearson VUE test centres in Australia and New Zealand. Some overseas test centres are available and additional overseas test locations can be requested. See Test Centre Locations for the test centre locations and deadlines to request an additional overseas test location.

If you need to change your appointment please see our information on rescheduling and cancelling.
